WANTED: A FEW GOOD MEN AND WOMEN!

Your local Petersburg Virginia Cooperative Extension is Proud to offer and is now recruiting a NEW class of Master Financial Education Volunteers (MFEV) to participate in a three week training program just in time for you to make a difference and give back at least 40 hours to your community in 2014.

Our community & citizens are struggling to make ends meet, by becoming a MFEV you will be trained to provide information on financial literacy so you can go out in your community, neighborhood, church, school, organization, etc. and spread the knowledge. Volunteers will be given 20 hours of training on topics relevant to the problems in the community. These tools will allow MFEV to improve the financial capability of those in our community through various mediums, including classroom sessions, 1-on-1 mentoring and working with established Virginia Cooperative Extension programs.

Once you become a MFEV you are charged to go in your community and help others learn about ways to manage money, improve their credit, debt management, plan for home ownership and more. All MFEV will serve as partners with Virginia Cooperative Extension to promote, inform, and work with community leaders, industry and individuals presenting programs on all aspects of Family & Consumer Sciences including financial management.

Why volunteer? *Develop leadership skills * Meet new people *Increase your knowledge of finance as it pertains to the family dynamic * Share your skills and talents with those who can truly benefit from it * Help strengthen your community* Build your resume* and the list goes on...

This class is limited to 10, call now for registration form and information!

Class dates are January 14, 21 and the 28th from 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. at the Petersburg VCE office located in the Petersburg Department of Social Services Building. If this fits your schedule we are looking forward to hearing from you!

The cost of $30.00 will provide the comprehensive training manual full of financial information to be used in your community, refreshments & lunch for 3 full days.
